

JESSE KNIGHT IS SURE TO BE CHOSEN

Many Democratic Primaries in Salt Lake County Instruct for Provo Man.

SENTIMENT FOR HIM IS GROWING EVERY HOUR

Samuel Newhouse Is Suggested for United States Senator in Several Districts.

The result of the church Democratic primaries in Salt Lake county Thursday night indicate that Jesse Knight of Utah county will be the nominee of the state convention, which will convene at Logan on next Tuesday. In most instances the primaries were well attended, showing more than usual interest in many of the districts, while in some the attendance was light, and in two or three no primaries were held.

However, the result indicates the nomination of Jesse Knight. In fact the delegates in a number of districts were instructed to vote for him for governor, and the sentiment expressed was overwhelming for him. There was also in many of the districts strong sentiment in favor of Samuel Newhouse for United States senator, and in connection with this, the name of Judge

U. King as congressional nominee, and Judge Rolapp of Ogden for supreme judge.

In several of the districts there were expressions in favor of Noble Warrum for secretary of state, and Joseph Stringfellow for attorney-general.

There were several others mentioned in connection with the various state offices, which means that the Logan gathering will be an unusually lively one. Candidates for place in the legislature, both for state and county positions. The list of the delegates chosen on Thursday night follows.
